WILD HOPE ART GALLERY FEATURES ARTIST MICHAEL HEFFERNAN
(WOW X 6 Exhibit)

(ROSWELL, GA. SEPT 22, 2018) Wild Hope Art Gallery is pleased to announce that Michael Heffernan has been chosen to participate in the Art Exhibit, WOW X 6. MR. Heffernan presently lives in Vinings but he is originally from Ireland. He says, "I am fascinated by the effects of light and shifts in color in everything we see and how that influences our visual world."

This exhibit consists of 6 accomplished artists from various points around Atlanta. From Vinings to Decatur, Gainesville to Buckhead and points in between, the 6 artists in the show represent an interesting mix of artistic styles.

The Opening Reception will be September 22 from 4 to 8 pm. Participating artists include Christine Bray, Buckhead, Bob Cargill, Dunwoody, Michael Heffernan, Vinings, by way of Ireland, Kay Hunt, Decatur, Amanda Lovett, Gainesville and Shanon Schneider of Roswell. Wild Hope is located inside Thompson's Frame and Gallery at 8560 Holcomb Bridge Rd. in Roswell

The show runs through October 6, 2018. Diane Buffington owns Wild Hope Art Gallery. She says "I am very excited about this event because it exemplifies some of the highest quality work from local area artists and encompasses a broad array of styles from abstracts, impressionism and representational work as well as original watercolors."
